WORK EXPERIENCE

From 08/01/2023 to present

Retired judge

From 19/03/1983 to 07/01/2023

Judge, member of the Italian Judiciary; since the 7th of August 2019 to the 7th of January 2023
President of the Tribunal (first instance court) of Pisa

Organisation:

High Council for the Judiciary (CSM Consiglio Superiore della Magistratura)

Ministry of Justice: Via Arenula Roma - 0039(0)668851 www.giustizia.it

CSM Piazza Indipendenza 6 Roma - 0039(0)644491 www.csm.it

Duties and responsibilities:

I have been a member of the judiciary since 1983. I served as a judge in the field of civil law and labor law from 1984 to 1986 (Tribunale di Modena), in the fields of criminal law from 1986 to 1998, last five years in combination with civil and second-degree labor law functions (Pretura and Tribunale of Pistoia), before being named referendary councilwoman at the Supreme Court of Cassation in 1999. In this position I used to prepare studies for the "Sezioni Unite" (united sections) in complex affairs in the fields of procedural rules, jurisdictions law, labor law and international law.

In 2002 I was elected member of the High Council for the Judiciary (Consiglio Superiore della Magistratura – CSM, the self-governing body of the Italian judiciary), office I hold until July 2006.

From April 2008 to may 2011, I have been seconded in the CSDP Mission EULEX Kosovo in the position of President of the Assembly of EULEX Judges.

I was President of the Civil and Labor Chamber of the Tribunal of Livorno from May 2011 to December 2015, responsible for the management of both the civil (family, bankrupt, property, obligations, maritime law) and the labor branch of the Chamber that is composed by 12 professional judges and 9 lay judges.

I was President of the Criminal Chamber of the Tribunal of Livorno From January 2016 to January 2017, responsible for the management of the Pre-Trial and Trial Offices and sitting as President of panel and single judge.

I was acting President of the Tribunal of Livorno from January to July 2017, responsible for the management of the Tribunal and sitting as President of criminal panel.

From July 2017 to July 2019, I have been Co-Agent of the Italian Government in front of the European Court of Human Rights in Strasbourg, representing Italy in the cases pending in front of the Court and managing the execution of the EcrtHR in front of the Council of Minister in composition Human Rights (CMDH).

As President of the Tribunal of Pisa from August 2019 I'm responsible for the management of the court (25 judges plus 2 Presidents of Chamber; 130 supporting staff members); I sit in family cases.

For long I deal with judicial training. I started my work in judicial training in 1993 as teacher specialized in procedural rules and international law. Formerly I sat on the Scientific Committee of the High Council for the Judiciary (charged to elaborate and realize the annual continuous and initial training program) from 1996 to 2000 and lately as a member of CSM I continuously supervised the activity of the Judicial Training Commission, which I also chaired.

Main fields of my training activities are judicial organization; case and court management; digitalization; ethic and disciplinary; human rights; family law and juvenile justice.

As member of the High Council of Judiciary I dealt with evaluation of professionalism of judges and prosecutors and with disciplinary matters. As President of Chamber and President of Tribunal, I have been in charge of the monitoring and evaluation of its members.

I am lively engaged in women rights. Member for four years of the Men and Women Equality Committee of the High Council for the Judiciary, I organized the research about Equality in decisional positions in the judiciary in Italy, France, Spain and Rumania, financed by the EU(2004)

I am a (retired) judge with an experienced overseeing both civil and criminal cases. As civil judge I worked in the fields of property, contracts, and family law, solving complex and new cases, testing (in family matter) interaction with social and psychological public services, supporting consensual solutions (as familiar mediation or judicial conciliation). I dealt with cases involving worker's rights, health and security, both as first degree and appeal judge. As criminal judge I dealt with cases involving serious crimes, like stealing, murder, sex crimes, drug traffic, economic crimes, and organized crime. Important juridical reviews published many of my sentences.

Thanks to my various experience I had developed analytical and research skills and commitment to learn quickly new laws and to handle new and unique legal problems. The scientific studies I have executed since the degree helped me in the judicial job in solving new cases and complex cases. I accomplish my duties with impartiality, independence, equilibrium, and detachment

PRESIDENT OF THE ASSEMBLY OF EULEX JUDGES and SUPREME COURT CRIMINAL JUDGE (rank II, 1)

Organisation/department, place and country:

CSDP MISSION EULEX KOSOVO PRISTINA

Name of supervisor and his/her email address:

SILVIO BONFIGLI Head of Justice Component silvio.bonfigli@giustizia.it

Duties and responsibilities:

I was a member of the Senior Staff of the Mission, President of the Assembly of EULEX Judges (that is a body aimed to grant the independence of EULEX Judges and responsible for the management of all issues related to the administration and to the work of Judges Unit), Judge at Supreme Court Level and Line Manager of Judges Unit. EULEX Judges have monitoring, mentoring and advising (MMA) functions and exercise executive/judicial functions in cases of serious crimes and property rights.

My main tasks were: - To chair the Assembly of EU Judges; - To direct and supervise the court management and the administrative activities related to EU Judges (that are deployed at the Supreme Court, Kosovo Property Agency Appeal Panel, Special Chamber at the Supreme Court for KTA related matters, District Courts); - To represent the EU judges in public and coordinate the public appearance of the EU judges; - To represent the Assembly of EU Judges in other bodies as foreseen in the applicable law; - To sit and decide in criminal and/or civil cases at the level of the Supreme Court of Kosovo. More specifically and based on the Operational Plan of the Mission and on the Law on Jurisdiction (Law No. 03/L-053), the main powers as President of the Assembly are the following: - to participate to selection panels (I started the selections on September 2007 preparing the first waves of deployment) and to appoint the other members of the panels (until may 2010); - to assign judges to a Court and to move them from a Court to another; - to propose to the Assembly the rules on case selection, cases allocation and composition of the panel; - to decide on the request of disqualification of an EULEX Judge; - to preside the Disciplinary Board and to appoint its other members; - to decide, at the end of a jurisdictional procedure, on the request of substitution of a local Judge with an EULEX Judge; - to establish modalities for cultural exchanges and sharing of best practices with the local colleagues and the judicial authorities; - to advice Head of Justice on general recommendations pertaining to the criminal policy. EULEX Kosovo is operational since the 9th of December 2008, when we started to exercise executive powers (judicial functions).

Since my deployment (5th of April 2008) until that date I have focused my activities on: organizational issues; definition of monitoring, mentoring, advising functions in a judiciary contest; building of an effective relationship with the local colleagues and judicial institution.

On the organizational point of view, I have: - established Rules on the functioning of the Assembly; - created the "tools box" for allowing judges to exercise properly the judicial functions (study, proposal and approval by the Assembly of the "Rules on case selection, case allocation and composition of the panels" for criminal Judges at DC level, civil Judges at DC level, Supreme Court Judges; extension of the Case Management System to EULEX Judges cases); - organized the 8 Court Team under my responsibility (Guide Lines on Court Management and Court Administration; revision of UNMIK practices) included Mitrovica; - handed over around 200 case-files from UNMIK, related to the gravest war crimes, crimes against humanity, organized crimes, murders and causing general dangers in occasion of the riots of 2004 and 2008; organized the Judges Unit webpage on EULEX website (where is possible to find the agenda and the deliberations of the Assembly, the scheduled hearings, the decisions).

I had professional relations with the main international stakeholders present in Kosovo, like UNMIK, ECLO (collaboration in establishing IPA Projects), CoE (training for local and international Judges), OSCE (monitor of the judicial system), ICO (property rights) and NGO engaged in human right, children and women rights protection.

On the judicial plan, I was criminal judge at Supreme Court level and I have been Presiding Judge in some of the more serious cases of war crimes, organized crime, terrorism of the last years.

WORK EXPERIENCE

From 1993 to PRESENT

PROFESSIONAL TRAINING AND EXPERT ACTIVITIES

Engaged in judicial training activities since 1993 in addition to the judicial functions:

1993 - 1996: trainer as teacher specialized in procedural rules and international law in initial and continuous training organized by the CSM for judges

October 1996 – May 2000 Member of the Scientific Committee (a pedagogic body composed by 6 judges/prosecutors and 4 law professors, appointed by the CSM), technical structure of the CSM - High Council for the Judiciary, in charge of :

A) preparing annual continuous training programme and curricula for young judges

B) organizing and delivering the annual continuous and initial training program under the supervision of the Training Commission of the Council, to judges and prosecutors, young magistrates (around 11.000 people) on various topics based on CSM's training curricula for young magistrates and on the main matters that are the object of judicial activity (the annual programme of continuous training contains 2 parts: a part that contains the classics of civil and criminal law and procedural law and a section on the new legislation and case law, to matters that are treated cyclically. International law and treaties and human rights are matters dealt with across the board in all courses. Specific training activities are dedicated to magistrates in decisional position and to specialised judges and prosecutors (i.e. Juvenile, family, organised crime ...). The annual programme for continuous training delivered 60 to 80 training actions (of 3 to 5 days) each year; the initial training programme is an intensive programme with long residential training periods alternate with period in court

C) preparing training materials and publications of the outcomes of the training actions

D) developing training innovative modules and methodologies

E) evaluation of the results of the training

Management position - Chair (July 2002 - July 2003) Deputy (August 200 - July 2004) and Member (August 2004 - July 2005) of the CSM Training Commission:

1. Chaired and continuously supervised the activity of the Judicial Training Commission.
2. Proposed the adoption of guide lines on training, training programmes, training the trainers projects to the General Assembly of the CSM;
3. As expert in Court Management and Cases Management, responsible for organising training actions for Heads/Presidents of Court and Presidents of Chamber in 2002-2005;

(July 2002 – 2005) Representative of CSM in the European Judicial Training Network and Contact point for the Judges Exchange European programme 2004-2005; in 2005 two week stage in the Ecole Nationale de la Magistrature (Paris, Bordeaux) to study the organization of the school in the view of the establishment of a school as autonomous body in Italy

(May 2007 – March 2008) Trainer for the judges of the Court of Cassation, as part of the decentralized training structure of the CSM (the Court of Cassation and each Court of Appeal is part of a training network), organizing and delivering training to the judges of the Court of Cassation, dealing with difficult issue like defining training needs of high court's judges and finding proper delivering methods

Organised many training actions financed by EU (JIA, civil and criminal cooperation) and implemented by the CSM, acquiring big experience in international projects management and EU budget:

More specifically, as training expert of the CSM I worked in the framework of the institutional and organizational competences of the Council in drafting projects proposal to be submitted to the EC (on the content point of view but also taking in consideration the EU budgetary rules and designing the budget of the training actions), drafting analytical training actions (once obtained the funds), delivering the training as coordinator of the funded training actions.

Among others, I can remember my participation at management level in the following projects:

- Shuman project, 1996-1997: training action on civil and criminal cooperation, Brussels Convention, environmental European law: a 2 days course in each of the 25 Italian Courts of Appeal
- Decentralized dissemination phase (at Court of Appeal level) of Community action in the field of fight against discrimination: Fight Against Discrimination. The Race and Framework Employment Directives, 19 – 21 April 2004
- Training of national judges in EU competition law (2003 - 2004)
- Annual programmes Grotius on EAW
- Fight Against Discrimination. The Race and Framework Employment Directives
- Various training actions on Brussels Regulation

When I was member and President of the Training Commission of the CSM, the Council was the legal institution obtaining the highest part of the funds dedicated by the European Commission to legal education.

Under my Presidency, and thanks to my personal engagement, an Italian magistrate was elected President of the EJTN by its General Assembly (2002-2003) and an Italian magistrate was assigned to the Albanian School for Magistrates in closed cooperation with the Council of Europe.

Delivered training and lectures at national and international level in Italian, English and French in judicial training institutes and at university level.

As expert, assisted the Consultative Council of European Judges – a body of the Council of Europe - in drafting the Opinion on the quality of judicial decision and the Opinion on specialization of Judges.
